The Coffee Shop

What's Brewing in Teaching and Learning?

A photograph of a white ceramic coffee cup filled with dark brown coffee beans. The cup sits on a matching white saucer. A piece of light-colored, textured fabric is draped over the saucer and the cup. Several coffee beans are scattered on the fabric and the wooden surface around the cup. The background is a dark, textured surface.

The Coffee Shop's mission is to connect faculty across disciplines to support student success and equity in higher education by sharing and discussing ACUE-inspired, evidence-based teaching practices.

The Coffee Shop

What's Brewing in Teaching and Learning?

What We Are ...

An online forum where faculty discuss instructional practices that actively engage students

What We Do ...

- Practice what we preach
- Invite ACUE learners/alumni to present ideas
- Facilitate engaging discussions
- Summarize key group take-aways

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants will be able to ...

Explain and identify the purpose and mission of The Coffee Shop.

Share best practices and value gained from cross-disciplinary/cross-institutional collaboration.

Identify and share practical applications of evidence-based pedagogical practices proven to improve student achievement and close equity gaps.

How I Have Implemented It

Please write down 3 things that would help to make you successful in this course. Please note that it can be anything, including things like childcare to ensure you can come to class while someone watches your baby. It could be not having the financial means to purchase the book. Please be honest and do not write something unless it is truly something you NEED. Keep in mind that other students cannot see your Entry Ticket, this is just between you and me.
